MAN DROWNED.—On Monday morning a man, accompanied by his wife, took quarters on the wharf boat, to await the arrival of the steamer Forest City, which was not due until late in the night. They had provided themselves with a bottle of whisky, and before the arrival of the boat had succeeded in getting themselves pretty well intoxica-ted. When the Forest City landed at the wharf boat the pair went on board, but had scarcely secured a footing when the husband fell overboard and was drowned. The wife manifested but little sorrow, confining herself to denunciations of the mate, who had taken from ciations of the mate, who had taken from them the bottle of liquor, which had deprived them of their senses. They were entire strangers, and nothing is known here in regard to their identity. The man had but one arm. His wife took passage for Pittsburgh.

SHOOTING AFFAIR AT BELLAIR,-Or Monday evening a shooting affair oc-curred at Bellair. A gentleman of this city gives us the following particulars: He was approaching the Belmon House, shortly after dark, when he esses at the next term, so that the offenders might be estabtering the hall, as he was passing up the stairs, he saw through the doc ge, furnish for publication a copy of leading to the barber-shop, a colored charge to the grand jury. The Judge and that he intended to adjourn the cent jury over to the next term, they marked, "Shoot the d-d rascal," or marked, "Shoot the d-d rascal," or some words to that effect, while another person seemed to be endeavoring to get some one to leave the room. Our in-formant went up stairs, and passed out to the verandah, in front of the hotel During his stay there two men came out from the lower story and walked away in the direction of the river. They were followed by the negro, who when they had got about thirty yards from the barber-shop, raised his pistol and fired, the ball taking effect in the hip of one of the men who had just left the shop. The barber's name is Jordan Our informant having to leave on the up train, was unable to obtain further particulars, we presume, however, that the affair will be duly investigated.

All those needing their medical or surgical aid, should call to see them, and save a trip for that purpose to Pittsburg. We copy a very flattering notice from the Presbyterian Banner, which we wish all to read, and all that need their skill to call and obtain it:

skill to call and obtain it:

TREATMENT OF THE EYES.—We noticed some time since, Drs. Hazlett & larbour, Occulists and Aurists of our circle active and reliable friend of the Conferacy, under all circumstances, he da preeminent right to be heard in the present of the conferacy of the conferacy of the conferacy of the conference of the ing, that they are, in the language of Mr. Nasby, "hell-bent on the offices at any sacrifice,"—even of good men like himself.

POLICE COURT.—Yesterday was one of the lively days at the police court. The contributions to the city treasury were quite respectable, and will be of material aid in the way of cleaning streets. Philip Feischer had a small fight, and paid $1 and costs. Mr. Brady, for assault and battery, fined $20 and costs.
